Section 10. Module 3 Specialisms

Currently, Cambridge ESOL permits the following specialist areas for Module 3:

- Teaching Business English (BE)
- Teaching young learners/young adults (YL)
- Teaching English for Specific Purposes (ESP)
- Teaching English for Academic purposes (EAP)
- Teaching ESOL learners with literacy needs (ESOL)
- Teaching Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL)
- Teaching examination classes (EX)
- Teaching 1-1 (1to1)
- Teaching Monolingual Classes (MON)
- Teaching Multilingual Classes (MUL)
- Teaching in an English-speaking environment (ESE)
- Teaching in a non-English speaking environment (NESE)
- Teaching learners online, through distance/blended learning (DL)
- Teaching English to learners with special requirements e.g. visual/hearing impairment, dyslexia, ASD (SR)
- Language development for teachers (LDT)
- Language Support (e.g. EAL on mainstream teaching programmes; specialist skills support such as supporting writing needs) (LS)

On the Distance Delta, we provide generic materials for all specialisms for Module 3 and specific input on Teaching Younger Learners, Teaching Exam Classes, English for Academic Purposes, ESOL/Literacy and Teaching Business English. You may, of course, elect to focus on any of the other specialisms above, on the understanding that you will need to research other specialisms independently. Please indicate which of the specialisms you would be interested in. (Please note that this is not binding and you will be able to change before the Module begins if you wish).

Specialism: _____

Section 11. Application Task

Outline a group of learners from one of the specialisms listed above. Provide a brief profile of the class and their needs and goals in relation to learning English (+/- 100 words). Given the class and their needs, detail six areas you would select to focus on for students, and why you would choose these areas. The areas may be grammatical, lexical, phonological, skills-based or learner training strategies. (+/- 750 words).

Your essay should be sent together with your application form, and emailed to admin@thedistancedelta.com or faxed to (+44) 20 7117 4182.

Please note that this task forms a vital part of your application and incomplete applications will be returned. Write your answers on a separate sheet and include this as an Appendix to your application form.
